Doctoral Positions at the Cluster of Excellence
“The Politics of Inequality” (f/m/d)

(part-time 65%, pay scale: TV-L E13, duration: up to 4 years, starting date: October 2022)

The Cluster of Excellence “The Politics of Inequality: Perceptions, Participation, Policies” (see inequality.uni.kn) includes researchers from political science, sociology, economics, linguistics, psychology, law and education studies. The Cluster’s researchers investigate inequality in areas such as education, income and wealth, and participation rights. They study how people perceive these inequalities, how they lead to collective mobilization, and how political actors respond to them.

The Cluster offers doctoral positions to highly motivated graduates with an outstanding Master’s degree or equivalent, obtained in a field which is relevant to the Cluster’s research agenda. PhD candidates will pursue their doctoral research projects independently or as part of a project team in one of the Cluster’s many and diverse research projects (see inequality.uni.kn/research/projects/). Detailed information about available positions will be posted on the Cluster’s website in mid-March. Accepted applicants are initially funded for 18 months. After the successful defence of their research proposal, funding is extended for a further 30 months. Accepted applicants will be enrolled in the Graduate School of the Social and Behavioural Sciences according to their main discipline and will specialise in “Inequality”.

All applications are to be submitted via the online application portal. The deadline for application is 15 April 2022. Candidates interested in applying for the advertised positions are asked to indicate their main discipline and state their interest in the Inequality Specialisation in both the statement of purpose and on the electronic application form.
